

EAST BAY CREW
Commercial Real Estate Women

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 10, 2011

Contact: Betsy Zimmermann

(925) 287-8747

bzimmermann@

mccrealtygroup.com

EAST BAY CREW ANNOUNCES 2011-2012 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Walnut Creek, Calif., (January 10, 2011) – East Bay CREW (Commercial Real Estate Women), the East Bay's premier commercial real estate organization and one of CREW Network's 73 chapters, announces the election of its 2011-2012 Board of Directors.

Heidi Timken has been elected East Bay CREW's 2011-2012 President. Heidi is one of the founding partners of Timken Johnson Hwang LLP, a women and minority owned law firm specializing in real estate law. She is an experienced real estate litigator whose areas of specialty include condemnation law and business litigation; she practices throughout California. Heidi has been selected as a Northern California Super Lawyer (top 5% of lawyers in Northern California) each year for the past five years (2006-2010).

Andrea Landsberg-Reeder has been elected East Bay CREW's 2011-2012 President-Elect and will continue serving as chapter Delegate to CREW Network. Andrea is Vice President of Leasing at Sunset Development Company, the 60-year old private owner and developer of Bishop Ranch in San Ramon, California. Andrea specializes in helping small business. She also serves the larger, legacy companies who are tenants at Bishop Ranch. Andrea is serving her 3rd year on the Danville Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

Tillie Ross will serve on the Board of Directors as Immediate Past President and Liaison to the Membership Committee. Tillie has over 25 years of experience in commercial real estate in various capacities as a developer of residential subdivisions and in the sales and financing of commercial properties. She has been involved with CREW since 2003 and is Chair of the Finance Committee of CREW National. She is a long-time resident of Walnut Creek and currently works for Old Republic Title Company as their Account Executive for Commercial and Special Projects.

Teresa Goodwin has been elected East Bay CREW's 2011-2012 Secretary will also serve as Delegate to CREW Network. Teresa is the President of PeopleSpaces Design Group. She is a licensed Civil Engineer and LEED Accredited Professional. Her firm specializes in tenant improvements and structural engineering. She enjoys giving back to the community including her involvement with the CREW Cares committee and as a volunteer wish grantor with Make A Wish.

Doreen Del Testa has been elected East Bay CREW's 2011-2012 Treasurer. Doreen has more than 18 years of experience within the banking industry holding various roles with Mechanics Bank. She currently holds a position as Vice President in Credit Administration-Risk Management. Doreen manages the commercial real estate property review and inspection process for qualifying term real estate loans. Doreen is a founding member of East Bay CREW and currently serves as a member on the Programs Committee.

East Bay CREW's at-large Directors for 2011-2012 are:

Sandra Weck. Sandra is a Senior Vice President with Colliers International specializing in retail properties. She was awarded the 2008 Women of Distinction Award in the San Francisco Business Times and was ranked one of Costar Groups East Bay's top Rated Power Brokers for 2007 and 2008 based on retail leasing transaction volume. Sandra is a founding member of East Bay CREW and currently serves as a Director and Liaison to the Programs Committee.

Committee.

Holly Neber. Holly is President and a principal at AEI Consultants, a national environmental and engineering firm headquartered in Walnut Creek. She is a Registered Environmental Assessor in California. AEI performs due diligence, investigation and remediation projects with 14 offices across the US. Holly is also a member of ICSC's Next Gen group and the Environmental Bankers Association. Holly serves as Liaison to the Communications Stephanie Reilly. Stephanie is an Account Executive for Heffernan Insurance Brokers, one of California's largest privately held insurance brokers. She specializes in property, liability and workers compensation insurance programs for mid-sized companies. She also serves on the Development Committee of Shelter, Inc. of Contra Costa County. Stephanie serves as Liaison to the CREW Cares Committee as well as Foundation Chapter Champion.

Brenda Goodrich. Brenda is the President of Goodrich Ad Valorem Property Tax Services. Her firm specializes in property tax analysis and appeals, representing owners and tenants of real property in the property tax appeals process. In addition to serving on the Board of East Bay CREW, Brenda serves on the 2011 CREW Network Industry Research Committee. Brenda serves as Liaison to the Sponsorship Committee.

About East Bay CREW

East Bay CREW's 90-plus members are the East Bay's most influential leaders promoting success and unlimited opportunities for women in the commercial real estate industry. East Bay CREW's mantra for 2011 is Get Connected – and they are entering the year with the energy to make it a successful year for all of their members. For more information about East Bay CREW, or to attend one of its upcoming events, visit www.eastbaycrew.org.

About CREW Network

CREW Network is the premier business organization dedicated to the advancement of all women in commercial real estate. CREW Network's 8,000-plus members represent every discipline and role within the industry, and are located in 73 major markets across North America. CREW Network's members average 14 years of commercial real estate experience, and nearly 63 percent of CREW Network's members are presidents, CEOs, partners, or senior partners at their companies. CREW Network supports the careers of its members by providing targeted educational and professional development sessions and business networking forums, and through its industry research initiative. For more information, please visit www.crewnetwork.org